Principal Andy FUNG delivered the speech below at the “Festival of Accomplishment” held on 11 July 2011.

Fellow Parents, Students and Teachers,

Good morning and welcome to attend our “Festival of Accomplishment” today.

A school year has passed. I can still remember the excitement on every student’s face on the day of the “Back to School Celebration”. Over the year, I can see students putting effort in their academic work, trying to take risks in learning and striving for excellence. I can see them developing close friendships with one another, making this campus a lovely and adorable one. I also see parents putting more and more trust and support on us and becoming our strategic partners to facilitate the students’ learning. Thank Lord for blessing the School, the students, the parents and also our teachers who have been doing so well over the last 10 months.

Today, we gather together to celebrate our students’ accomplishment. To wrap up for this school year, I would like to quote a scripture: “Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity”. In Chinese, 不要叫人小看你年輕，總要在言語、行為、愛心、信心和純潔上，都作信徒的榜樣。

Once again, thank you for your support and I look forward to another fruitful year together!
